

A Better Way To Manage Your Research

Collect

Your research in one place. Add articles by PDF or import directly from most databases. Bibliographic data is automatically captured.

Read

And annotate your research from any computer. Highlight, take notes, add tags, and easily edit bibliographic info.

Create

A bibliography in any citation style. Easily switch between styles and incorporate into your paper.

Share

Your research with classmates or colleagues. Grant access to view, comment, or edit, either to individuals or the Touro community.

Access

Articles quickly, by uploading a PDF, using the automatically imported stable URL, or searching with ArticleLinker

Customize

Your workflow with different view & import options; add-ins for Word, Google Docs, and web capture; and custom styles.

Spend less time organizing and more time writing:

Use RefWorks to collect, read, annotate, share,
and cite your research.
